

OPEN EXHIBIT FOR AREA ARTISTS!

August 10 - September 8, 2018

WHAT WORK FITS THE THEME?

The Hannibal Arts Council is looking for pieces that depict things shiny, mirrored and reflective. Examples: photographs of shiny objects, an oil painting of something reflected in water, mirrored mixed media sculpture...even works which illustrate inner/self-reflection. Use your imagination to create a new piece of art or submit a piece you already have which fits the theme. We are looking for paintings, photographs, sculptures, mixed media...any media. Just make it fit the theme!

Also on display: A River's Treasure Invitational Exhibit, Missouri Preservation Society's Courthouses of Missouri and The Photography Channel: A River Runs Through It

Artwork In: Monday, August 6 or Wednesday, August 8 from 9-5
