

ART: OUT OF THE BOX

The Hannibal Board of Public Works, Hannibal Arts Council and the Hannibal Area Chamber of Commerce bring you Hannibal's newest public art partnership project/initiative –ART: OUT OF THE BOX!

Eleven BPW traffic box cabinets throughout the City of Hannibal were wrapped in art through this project to INFUSE art into public spaces, SHOWCASE area artists and Hannibal's art community and ENHANCE the visual landscape.

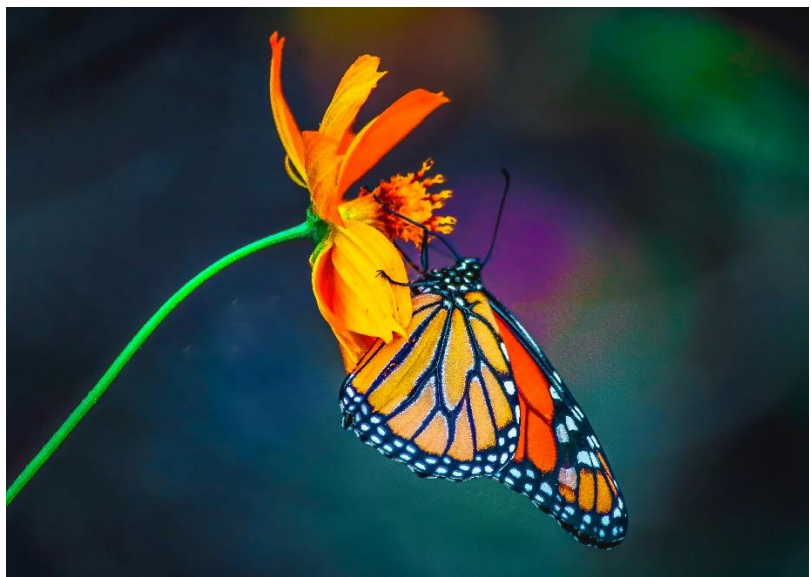

BROADWAY & MAIN STREET INTERSECTION

Brenda Beck Fisher – “Clearly It’s Me Snorkeling”

BROADWAY & FOURTH STREET INTERSECTION

Lisa Delcour – “The Butterfly and the Flower”

BROADWAY & FIFTH STREET INTERSECTION

Elizabeth Mannhardt – “The Fire Within”

BROADWAY & SEVENTH STREET INTERSECTION

Amanda Pendergrass – “Hummingbird”

BROADWAY & TENTH STREET INTERSECTION

Tim Judge – “Flag Day”

SOUTH MAPLE AVENUE (Side of Holy Family School)

Sheryle Charity – “Spirit of Truth”

Cindy Logan – “Roaring to Save the Planet”

A detailed, expressive drawing of a tiger's face, rendered in a sketchy, textured style. The tiger has large, yellow eyes and prominent orange and black stripes. The background is dark and textured, with faint, illegible text visible on the left side.

Brenda Beck Fisher – “Hummingbird”

[illegible]

COMING SOON!

1700 BLOCK OF MARKET STREET (Front of Eugene Field Elementary School)

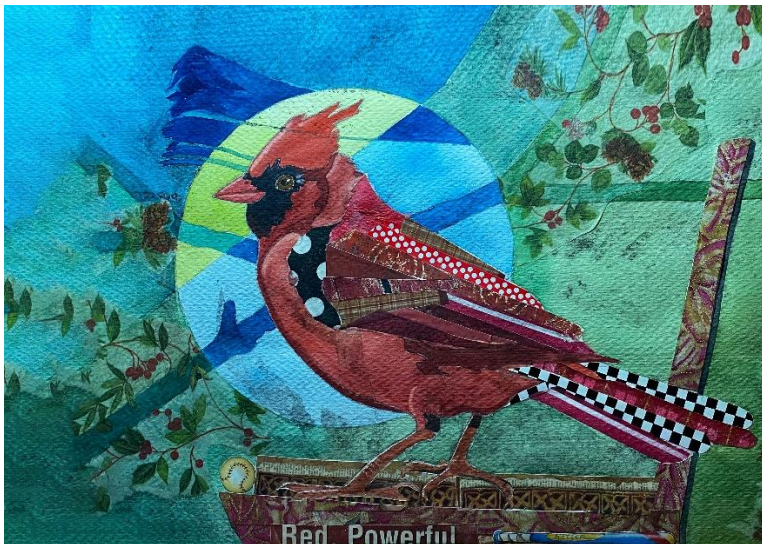

Amanda Brown-DeClue – “Under the Sea #1”

COMING SOON!

2610 ST. MARY'S AVENUE

Kathy Hyer – “Cardinal”

COMING SOON!

3716 MARKET STREET (Oakwood Elementary School)

Elaina Dyke – “Petals”

